Are often frustrated by sudden break-down, due to dyspepsia or constipation. Brace up and take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They take out the materials which are clogging your energies, and give you a new start. Cure headache and dizziness too. At all druggists; 25c., guaranteed.

CHANGES OF BASE.

Mr. Robert A. Burton, who bas been individual bookkepeer for the Farmers Bank, has been appointed to the position of superintendent of one of the big distilleries in Marion county, and has gone to Lebanon to take charge for the place.

Mr. Burton is a genial, popular and efficient gentleman.

We regret to lose him and his family from our city.

Mr. J. M. VanDerveer has rented "Edgewood," the handsome home of the late Col. John L. Scott, Sr. (now the property of Mr. W. McKee Hardie), and has moved his family to the same. Mr. A. C. VanWinkle, late of Danville, has rented the cozy home of Mr. J. M. VanDerveer, on Shelby street, and has moved in with his family.

In the Fayette Circuit Court, on Monday, Judge Watts Parker, on the Louisville Southern Railton the petition of the Hargises for buil, allowed ex-Senator A. Hy Hargis to give bail in $15,000, and refused to allow Judge James Hargis, Elbert Hargis and Sheriff Ed. Callahan to give bail. The trial of these parties, under the indictments for procuring the assassimation of James Cockrell, were set for Tuesday next, April 4, and both sides assert that they will be ready when the case is called.

RELAYING TIES AND TRACK.

The Frankfort and Versailles Traction Co. is relaying the ties and track along the line on the South Side. They are putting down heavier ties and rails preparatory to running the freight cars from the L & X. Yards, on the West Side. For a day or two the cars only ran as far as the corner of Shelby and Second, but now are running the whole route. They are also repairing the line to Cove Spring Park; with a view to make that attractive breathing place of the city still more attractive this summer.

A ROLAND FOR HIS OLIVER.

It is with sincere regret that we learn that Col. Young E. Allison.

The Georgetown Times, of March 20, says very justly:

"The Republican reacals in Colorado have brought the State into general contempt."

But how about that little Kentucky affair, managed by Editor Bell's party, in 1900?

HAPPY RESULTS.

Have Made Many Frankfort Residents Enthusiastic.

dents Enthusiastic.

F No wonder scores of Frankfort citizens grow enthusiastic. It is enough to make any one happy to find relief after years of suffering. Public statements like the following are but truthful representations of the daily work done in Frankfort by Doan's Kidney Pills.

Wingate Thompson, police officer, of 20 Murray street, says: "Ordinary backache is sufficient to torment the average mortal, but when there is added toglit trouble with the kidney secretions which embarrasses you during the day and breaks your sleep at night, it is no wonder the sufferer is miserable and welcomes the means he employs to get relief. It is hard enough for any one to endure such sufferings and misery, but for one as heavy as myself it comes doubly hard. It was not until I learned about Doan's Kidney Pills that I found a remedy that would do just what was claimed for it. I procured a box of the pills at J. W. Gayle's drug store, and their use corrected the kidney secretions, relieved the dreadful aching in my backland helped me in every way. There is no need to have any doubt about Doan's Kidney Pills, They do exactly as represented."

I.
The weather is a country lass,
I found this true—to-day;
When through the wet and tangled grass,
She led March ont—to-day;
Both laughed and sang in sweet re-frain,
Quarrield, and then made friends again.

fI.

The weather is coquettish maid, I know so by her face; So shy as she and so afraid. To trust March's rude embrace. And when he whispered in her ear, She ran away, and would not hear.

THE REVIVAL.

Splendid Congregations and Large Ingathering.

The revival that has been in progress in this city has not, at the time we write, shown any signs of abatement. On the contrary, the people having turned out in larger numbers than even last week showed.

out in larger immerse that were last week showed.

Owing to circumstances controlling affairs, none but the regular services have been held at the First and Southern Presbyterian Churches.

At the Ascension Church only the regular Lenton services have been held, but these have been well attended.

At the Christian Church large congregations have attended every night, and Rev. C. R. Hudson, the pastor, has preached strong and attractive sermons, which, together with the sweet singing of Prof. Cappa and wife, and the children's chorus, have rendered these services unusually solemn Prof. Cappa and wife, and the children's chorus, have rendered these services unusually solemn and impressive.

At the Methodist Church, Rev. J. O. A. Vaught, the pastor, has preached heart-searching and tender sermons, setting forth the truths of the gospel with unusual clearness and power. Full houses have greeted each service, and great solemnity has prevailed.

At the First Baptist Church, Rev. Dr. Preston Blake, has continued to preach twice a day to very large congregations; that, especially, of Sunday night, filling the big auditorium, the Sunday-school rooms and the balcony, until but few could have found setts.

"DO IT TO-DAY."

The time-worn injunction,
"Never put off 'till to-morrow what you can do to-day." is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse ad vice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy
the Dr. Boochee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your

HE ROUNDABOUT'S D PARTMENT OF HISTORY, EDUCATION, LIT-ERATURE,

A Plea for Pure Motives.

The student of Ruskin will find him to be an earnest, clean, clear

The student of Ruskin will find him to be an earnest, clean, clear expositor of motives, and morals, which the writers of the present day would do well to imitate as well as emulate.

He gives to his readers such delightful sense of rare virtues, and a conception and significance of existence, that the very thought and theaning of life is blended as exquisitely as the petals of perfume of roses in the garden of memory. What is the best method of reaching ultimate truth? The weight of evil with which teachers, especially, have to contend is increasing like the outpouring of water. There is no time for them to indulge in idle sophistries or metophysical fantasies when the crime of deception is abroad among their pupils, and the miseries of its duplicity are being heaped higher day after day. If, by the lifting of a finger in the right direction for the stamping out of such sin, and seeing the necessity as well as the need for purity of physical, mental, and spiritual endowment, the masses must awaken to the question at stake, and allow no appearance of prejudice or indifference to interfere with the acknowledgment of all those sacred principles of faith, trust, and obedience which were and are the fundamental bases for the culture and structural building which we term character.

Books are one's best friends and companions if these be rightly chosen, and read with common sense and discernment.

But they become nanseous and insidious as the poison of asps if they teach impure thinking, immoral tendencies, degenerate altitude, and omit altitude to higher aim, loftier attainments and naselfish living interest.

aim, loftier attainments and ma-selfish living.

I have in mind a writer, whose name is almost a household word in old Kentneky, for he is one of her sons—he has written many sweet, delightful stories which are like the song of birds, but in later years his tone has become acrid, and the moral tendency of his writings show every sign of degen-eracy.

writings show every sign of degeneracy.

If one could play with fire and not get burned, then a perusal and acquaintance with recent flection (enamating from the brain and pen of this wielder of modern thought), might make advance in psychological research, but the end would not justify the meanr. "The secret of beauty in life is the inner purity of heart and sonl. The secret of attaining it is through the culture of the soul life."

Then let the boy or the girl

through the culture of the soul life.

Then let the boy or the girl read only those books wherein are implanted good motives, pure morals, right principles. Newspapers are responsible, to a large degree, for the decadence of classical reading, and the editors themselves shall be held accountable at the bar of God for allowing the impure streams of slush, mud, corrupt and unprincipled methods, to sweep in unrestrained headlines (massive and brazen as were the gates of Babylon)—through an avenue that might be as curative in its effect as the literature of the Bible, but which is as devastating to the mind of the average reader as the scoria of volcanic cruption to the sunny vineyards of bright and beautiful Naplee on the shores of Italy.

Newspapers, like books, might become vehicles for the dissemination of sound, wholesome teaching, but instead are used to reproduce all the cruel, heartbreaking anathemas of modern civilization. Would to God that all such

"news" as divorce suits, suicides, and other kindred topics might be relegated to the office of the dead, and the advance of the "printed sheet" be made in the interest of right living, and a law passed, also enforced, against a "brain child" being born out of wedlock.

Do dom; but truth forgives no insult, and endures no stain. Do not let us lie at all. Let us not think of one falsity as harmless, and another as slight, and another as unintended. Cast them all asside. They may be light and accidental; but they are an ugly soot from the smoke of an hargy heart."

Speaking truth is like writing fair and comes only by practice, and can te as delightful an accomplishment to the modern boy or girl as musical or artistic attainment.
